Lesson Plan

Writing

1. Objectives
  - To enable the learners to be able to:
  - Recognize the connective word AND as a connective.
  - To use AND in multiple option in a sentence
2. Function: Using AND as connective
3. Activity: Reading and writing sentences from a grid
4. Material: Work Sheet (using AND)

5. Procedure:

a. Pre Writing

- Prepare your students for writing and distribute worksheets
- Read out sentences from the grid, using the word AND e.g. - Saad had some cake, chips AND ice cream.

Saad AND Adil had some cake.

Explain that when there are more than two words of the same type in a sentence then we use comma (,) to separate the words and for the last two words we use AND

b. Practice

First you read the sentence from the grid (work sheet) and ask them to follow you in a drill.

Ask as many questions as you can and provide chances to each of them to respond. Take responses in complete sentences

e.g.,

What did Saad have?
What did Faisal have?
Who had chocolate?

c. Writing

Tell your learners to have a look at the grid (work sheet) and make sentences out of it under the grid.

Give them enough time to discuss with their partners sitting on their right and left, front and behind.

- d. Take feed back from the students and write the sentences on the board so that the weak students could also follow and write in their copies.

6 Follow Up.

Tell them to transfer all the sentences in their home work copies.

6. Procedure:

a. Pre Writing

- Write the following sentences on the board.
  - e.g.- Nadeem plays cricket.
  - Razi plays cricket.
- Write again by combining the two sentences with AND. Explain the uses of linking words like AND.
  - e.g. Nadeem and Razi play cricket.

b. Practice.

Write the following sentences on the board one by one and ask the learners to join and rewrite the sentences by combining with AND. If the names comes again then ask them to write pronoun she/he.

1.
Rani is my friend.
Shazia is my friend.

2.
Rani likes playing hide and seek .
Shazia likes playing hide and seek.

3.
Rani is good in Math
Rani helps me in Maths.

4.

Lesson plan

Communication

Week: 4

Day: 1

1. Objectives: To enable the learners to:
  - Use language properly.
  - Speak in rising and falling tone.
  - Identify where to stress the word in a sentence.
2. Function: Rising and falling tone in speech
3. Activity: Drill and practice
4. Material: A chart which contains sentences with stress and intonation pattern (write in colours also in bold letters)

5. Procedure:

- a. Explain to your learners that stress and intonation give meanings to the language. Rising and falling tone in the speech bring rhythm and fluency in speaking.
- b. Put up a chart on the board, which shows the following examples. Words on which main stress falls are written in capital. Use colours to highlight the words. Do not write the lines in bracket.
  - This is a PEN. (talking about only pen)
  - This is a BLUE pen. (blue is important not pen.)
  - Is this YOURS? (importance on question and also on possession)
  - NO, it's NOT mine. (total negation)
  - This is my BROTHER pen. (shows possession)

Say the sentences aloud one by one and students listen and also explain the meanings given in brackets.
- c. Choral Drill
Ask them to repeat after you in chorus. Tell them that the words in capital will be pronounced in rising tone. You say these words properly and ask them to follow.
- d. Individual Practice
Call the learners one by one and ask them to pronounce each sentence individually, putting stress on the words written in capital letters. When the cycle is complete, write some more examples on the board and follow the same procedure for practice.

e.g. I want a BOOK.

  - WHICH book please?
  - I want GREEN one.
  - Is that YOUR book?
  - YES, it is.

e.g.

  - I have a DOG.
  - WHICH dog?
  - The BLACK one.
  - WHAT do you call it,
  - Its name is JACKY.
  - NICE name.

Note: If time permits, you can add more examples for practice

Level: 2

Week: 4

Day: 2

Lesson Plan

Communication

1. Objectives: To enable the learners to practise the short sound of - e-.
2. Function: Practising the sound
3. Activity: Colouring and Drill
4. Material: Work sheet (short -e-), a chart of the rhyming lines

5. Procedure:

a. Presentation

Introduce the short sound of -e- and write the words elephant, egg.
Ask them to add some more rhyming words to the list.

b. Oral Practice

Write the poem on the chart and display it on the board.
Give your learners choral drill in a rhythmic way.

Ben's Ten Hens

Ken had a hen
and Jen had a hen.
But Ben had ten.
When Ken and Jen
And Len met Ben,
How many hens
Did they all have then?

c. Consolidation

- Ask them to copy the poem from the board.
- Tell them that the words that have short -e- sound should be written in colour pencil or marker.

d. Worksheet

Follow the procedure given on the worksheet.

6. Follow up:

Ask them to copy the words of short -e- sound from the poem and the worksheet

Week: 4	Lesson Plan	Reading
Day: 3

1. Objectives: Extensive reading enables the learners to:
  - a) Enjoy reading.
  - b) Read for pleasure and not for learning.
  - c) Read with fluency and speed.
  - d) Nurture a love for reading.
2. Skill: Extensive Reading.
3. Topic: Selected stories.
4. Material: Selected storybooks from school library.

5. Procedure:

- a. selection of story book.
  - Select story books or poems or information text.
  - Keep the level and interest of the learners in consideration.
  - You can select yourself or you can ask the learners what they would like to read.
  - Material should be collected before the class begins.
- b. Motivation.
  - Make them aware that they cannot learn a foreign language without reading some more material or books.
  - Create a confidence that they can understand the stories without knowing the meaning of some words.
  - Explain them that they are reading for pleasure and not for class work or examinations.
- c. Procedure. (While Reading)
  - Make groups – taking three members in each group or make pairs.
  - Distribute one book/copy of material to each group or pair.
  - Allow them to read aloud One of them reads in a group and the other two listen and keep on changing the turn of reader.
  - Train them to guess the meaning themselves and don't tell them the meaning.
  - Encourage them to use dictionary quickly but not very often only once or twice.
  - Teach them to focus on main ideas and information and overlook details.
  - Help them to read in phrases and sentences instead of reading each word separately.
  - Keep on walking and moving around to have a watch and provide support.
  - Tell them that they will finish their reading 10 minutes before the period ends.
  - Every group will give feed back in the last 10 minutes.
- d. Feed back.
  - Set a task on reading. Draw a grid on the board and ask about the following. First take feed back orally, then ask them to write in the column.

Name/Title of the book	Pages read	what they liked	disliked

6. Follow up: Ask them to write the same what they have discussed in their feed back

Lesson Plan

Communication

1. Objectives: The learner will be able to use short responses in spoken language
2. Function: Asking questions and answering in short responses
3. Activity: Ask and answer
4. Material: C/Board

5. Procedure

a. Presentation:

Tell your learners that in speaking, we often use short answers and contraction. It also happens in our own Mother tongue (L1). Give examples in L1. Same is done in English with the sample on one side of the board.

Short Responses

Yes/No

Yes, she/he is.

No, she/he isn't.

- Write the following examples on the other side of the board and give a drill to your students.

Tr. Is she wearing cap?

St. No, she isn't.

Tr. Is she wearing black shoes?

St. Yes, she is.

b. Dialogue Practice

- Before starting the dialogue practice, you should have a list of questions in your hand. (next page). You can also use your own questions
- Call one student at a time. Tell him/her to stand near the board, facing the class. Ask some questions from the class and the question should be about the person. Whole class will respond in chorus.
- After having a reasonable practice, erase the responses. Continue your practice.

c. Pair work (Ask and Answer)

Call two students at a time. One will ask and the other will answer, using the same short responses. Provide a list of four or five questions to the students to facilitate them in practice.

List of Questions

Ask the following questions.

- Is she holding a glass?
- Is she holding a pen?
- Is she holding a flower?
- Is she holding a book?

- Is she/he wearing cap?
- Is she/he wearing blue shoes?
- Is she/he wearing blue Duppatta/Cap?
- Is she/he wearing white Duppatta/Cap?
- Is she/he wearing frock/Jacket?
- Is she/he wearing Shalwar Kameez/trousers?

Ask them to do some activity. e.g.

walking, clapping, touching, waving hand.

- Is she/he jumping?
- Is she/he walking?
- Is she/he raising the hands?
- Is she/he clapping?

- Is she/he touching the book?
- Is she/he touching the board?
- Is she/he touching my head?
- Is she/he touching the chair?

Note: You can form more questions taking different situations and ideas. Remember one question should be for wrong situation and the other for right, so that they could practise Yes or No responses

1. Objectives: To enable the learners to
  - Listen and recall
  - Listen and respond.
2. Function: Talking about natural habits of animals
3. Activity: Listen and check
4. Material: worksheet (about animals)

5. Procedure:

a. Before listening:

Talk about animals. Talk about land animals and sea animals. Make two lists on the board and take responses from the learners. Tell them that they are going to listen about animals who live in water.

b. Worksheet

- Distribute the work sheets and ask them to listen carefully and attentively to give answers on the sheet.
- Before you start listening task you should check the meanings of the following words
- Worm, log, crawl, bugs, paddle, quack, dive

Task 1: (1st listening)

- Read the listening Text slowly and give clear instructions about the task 1 to the learners.
- Read each sentence two times. When listening is over, tell your learners to match and compare their tasks with their partners.

Task 2: (2nd listening)

Read aloud again. Before starting reading, give clear instructions to the learners for the task. Read with comfortable speed. After listening, students will do peer checking.

Task3: (Generalization)

Write three headings on the board in bold letters and ask them to choose the best heading.

Task 4: Do it orally. If some time is left, ask them to write.

Follow Up: Ask them to write the names of animals that make their home in water, and try to paste the pictures of the animals in their H/work copies.

Listening text

Many animals make their homes in ponds. Fish swim around looking for worms to eat. Turtles sit on logs. Snails crawl on plants. Frogs sit on rocks waiting for bugs to fly by. Ducks paddle around and quack. Then they dive under the water.
